Please acknowledge receipt of this email immediately please!

Ms Mari, can you send me a notice of my next court date and the time of the same immediately please.

Dear Mr. Bradley,

We spoke briefly at my court appearance 09/09/13 about a balanced owed for trial preparations of the upcoming trial date on or around 10/19/13, now this alleged trial date has been pushed back once again, and for the fourth or fifth court appearance since requesting my latest Brady request, to date still to no avail, however

I also spoke to you about my disposition regarding the demand for discovery and the array of possibilities of dismissal in relations per the requested.

It's been a little more or less than three and a half's months since we filed the demands for discovery, and the District Attorneys office has directly refused to adhere to our documented demands of Brady Materials in addition to directly refusing the judges orders to provide the same. These actions or lack there of exhibited by the prosecuting office is clearly grounds for dismissal in my opinion but not limited too.

It's impossible to even consider a trial date when the state is not respecting my constitutional protections in providing me all the requested Brady materials to adequately address my accusers, even that of Ohio State Troopers!

There has been various pre trial and trial dates set so far, only to be push back to a little more or less then 30 months now, and it appears that number will continue to climb!

It is my disposition, that until our discovery demands are rightfully met as documented, it is truly premature to be speaking or taking a trial stance, be it the defense and or the District Attorneys Office who also have to protect my constitutional protections as well even in pursuit of a conviction, which is truly important via and per my constitutional protections and or the $5000.00 activation fee of our contractual agreement.

I would like to thank you in advance for your time and understandings relevant, and as always your prompt input is appreciated and anticipated,

Respectfully,
Clifton A. Jackson
