

NINTH APPELLATE DISTRICT COURT OF APPEALS "COVER LETTER"
HIGHLIGHTING THE FOLLOWING FACTS:

Because of Appellant's past and present fears in dealing with corruption in and with the Lorain County Judicial Community regarding: State v. Jackson, Court of Appeals Case No. 14CA010555; Trial Case No. 11CR083104.

Appellant asserts that he has forward the following filings and exhibits of tangible evidence [DVD and CD] of the audio & video critical to the Fourth Amendment infringement violation committed by the Ohio State Highway Patrol on 6/14/11:

1. A "DELAYED 26(B)" motion itself consisting of 10-pages including the cover page.
2. The supporting Affidavit and Appendix which consist of 63 pages numbered roman numerical and the (Exhibits which are numbered as appendix pages) appendix supporting pages are numbered as appendix (Appx. P. 1-655) pages.
3. And, most importantly, Appellant has mailed directly to this Honorable Court of Appeals for the Ninth Appellate District (because of the above stated fears and receiving [at one time] blank DVD and CD) a copy of the original DVD audio & video, and the CD PDF files, which are included with the submission of Appellant's Delayed 26(B) motion.

Appellant asserts that this "Cover Letter" and the accompanying DVD audio & video, and the CD PDF files are submitted as a back-up protection plan to assure that the actual DVD audio & video, and the CD PDF files are authentic pursuant to Rules of Evidence Procedure, Rule 901. For the DVD audio & video, and the CD PDF files actually have sounds and images that can be heard and seen, they are not a blank copy for Appellant has personally viewed and listen to both.

Respectfully submitted,
