

Reaching For The Stars

I remain studious echoing for the streets a lil rough around the edges an imperfect topic however, Oyezzz is my calling I see the light speaking amongst us prophets – right now I'm in the hole for fighting but mentally I'm no longer a hostage in fact, I'm soaring at fifty thousand feet on autopilot having the time of my life enjoying you occupants –

I embrace professionals, the hood, and the unorthodox we are all natural resources in our every verse thinking outside the box we must start sharing our internal riches while cultivating our financial worth – sometimes as bosses and individuals, we make bone-headed decisions not thinking of consequences and retributions if we're holding everything and everyone accountable let's do just that not just Breaking News or the allegations of Mr. Kraft soliciting prostitution – see, although we've become accustomed nothing simplistic prejudicing one's shortcomings and pains like you see the specks in our eyes we see your planks wildfires, tsunamis, earthquakes, and torrential rains –

I've overcome gunshots, blood clots, and mug shots like Serena, Venus, and Snoop Dogg I rise from the depths of the obis of conspiracies, chaos, and genocide wondering will Jesus part the sea again so we can dry –

I've seen orcas snacking on jaws there have been so many shooting massacres and unseen footage why doesn't the media target injustices and equality issues like they do drugs, select communities, homicides, and stray bullets – like you, I know I'm a lump of coal so I embrace the pressures and transformations into a diamond knowing sure as the sun is burning radiating heat the same holds true in every dark room the sun is shining – so we have to climb our ladders how we must thinking well beyond like Bad Boys and Biggie

In My Lifetime I've graduated Reasonable Doubts like Faith, Lil Kim, the LOX, and Hov still putting it on in memories of Biggie – much needed, Oyezzz will be a platform to showcase our memories and our personal literature knowing healthy messages supersede educated presentations we'll catch up like combing through thousands of scriptures – so undoubtedly in my later years I'm maturing coming full circle even acknowledging unnecessary gambles more than ever I know now fo sho fo sho my mind is my weapon and my drive and dreams are my ammo –

so before I close throw some Ace and Ciroc in the air where ever you are stay woke, me and Meek sliding through riding in somin soft Oyezzz and Dream Chasers will forever reach for the stars –

Yo Meek, Ricky, Diddy, Hova, LeBron, Floyd, Kanye, T.I., Cube, Snoop, Oprah, Kris & Kendall, Serena & Venus, Gates, French, Khalad, Virgil Abloh, Angel Brinks, Fashion Designers its all love and green get at me.

Likewise, Rasheeda & Kirk, Teyana & Iman, Paris Hilton, Kim & Kanye, Tina Knowles, Olivier Rousteing, Miami Jo Jo, Nicki Baby, Ju Ju, Kevin Hart, Demi Lovato, and Remy Ma the same holds true its all love and green get at me.

To all you Bosses, Reality TV & Social Media, Kaepernick, Nike, the NBA, Daytime, Cali, Miami, Atlanta, Texas, New York, and all of you that were not mentioned I look forward to you. Its all love and green get at me.

To all of you, I'm on to something stay woke.

Listen from my present location via my support team hopefully combining with your staff and resources our joint efforts will manifest and propel the vision, purpose, and branding potential of Oyezzz.

The Oyezzz movement is far greater than any one individual, community, race, or culture.

If agreed upon, I can humbly navigate a 150 to 250k plus budget under guidelines that will at minimum bring a modest return the equivalent of a successful album approaching or exceeding diamond sales.

The too good to be true theory does not reside here.

In fact, there are no ceilings as far as the possibilities of marketing potentials, global branding, internal & financial success.

Nor is it unrealistic to believe we cannot approach or exceed the realms of a modest 8 to 9 figure stature being propelled by the multi-facets of the Oyezzz brand faster than most with multiplying room.

Oyezzz. What does open your eyes mean to you?
