

The Whirlwind Of Michael Cohen's Testimony Per The Live ABC News Special Report

Mr. Elijah Cummings was the committee chairman of the hearing.

Mr. Cummings's opening statement immediately directed Cohen's attention to a 3/17/17 meeting at the Whitehouse where President Trump was alleged to have made an illegal reimbursement payment to Michael Cohen, himself, from his personal bank account. Cohen confirmed the meeting but stated the substance and purpose of the meeting was not entirely accurate. Cohen also provided proof in a copy of the partial payment check for $35,000 that President Trump wrote and provided during that meeting.

Mr. Meadows, a member of the House Oversight Committee, immediately moved to postpone the hearing because Cohen provided alleged pertinent evidence that could not be reviewed within the strict 24-hour rule for like evidence. Mr. Meadows further moved to appeal the board's unfavorable ruling of the board's decision to wave the rule that specifically warrants discovery evidence must be provided within 24 hours.

Mr. Cummings opened the hearing targeting Cohen's relations to President Trump and arguably overt acts in a possible Rico conspiracy detailing a specific timeline of events alleging Trump deliberately committed perjury regarding various investigations and specific relations dealings before and during his presidential office.

To many Americans, President Trump has not been forthright with the American people regarding various investigations as documented.

In addressing Mr. Cohen the chairmen opened with a reference to Dr. Martin Luther King.

Mr. Jordan's opening statement targeted and questioned the alleged truth associated to violating attorney-client rights and a bevy of other allegations targeting the committee's choice of giving a convicted felon, an informant, the power of this public platform to disrespect President Trump.

Mr. Cummings hit his gavel against Mr. Jordan's tactics and behaviors.

Cohen opened his testimony with business regrets referring to Trump as an enigma, a racist, a con man, and a cheat the buildup of Cohen's testimony was to assist the American people and the alleged resourcefully weak –

I'm talking this was a level of informant activities of epic proportions like none never seen before just look at the double standards of law applications Michael Cohen v. Donald Trump facing off on Mt. Rushmore –

Cohen gave a bevy of ethically and morally invading allegations in which he alleged to regret personal and professional relations alleging Trump's overbearing dispositions and ego trips thinks he's worth more than life's purposes and abbreviations –

Cohen informed the committee how Trump deflates and inflates his net worth for personal gains when beneficial expressing deep regrets about lying to Mrs. Trump about every known violations be it adulterous in the physical, spiritual or visual – it was stated Trump threatened his school system to withhold records for personal and campaign reasons it was stated Trump belittles the late John McCain and his credentials to a level of disrespect transcending American and Russian seasons –

Cohen said he has been soul searching trying to salvage his family name taking accountability for everything he's done wrong Cohen referenced Exhibit 8 where Trump considers Cohen a rat who exemplifies a disgrace of a man and everything known wrong –

as of February 26, 2019, professionally and legally Cohen is no longer a fraternity member or a lawyer Cohen's testimony has alarmed a traveling Donald Trump with Trump being an aircraft carrier and Cohen the war-ready destroyer –

so many conspiracies to mention the loss of control is out of control publicity is leaking from the roof it was stated "the Republicans were not afraid of Cohen's lies they were afraid of all of Cohen truths" –

Mr. Gosar called Cohen "a pathological liar" trying to reap the benefits of an informant cooperating Mr. Gosar, America's mass incarceration problems are propelled around double standards and informants cooperating –

Oyez22
The hearing held its first recess.

analyzing what stood out was the gravity of the hearing and Michael Cohen's unwavering demeanor and poise further alarmed the republicans never denied the meat of Cohen's testimony however, Trump Jr. tweets confirmed he was undeniably annoyed –

Mr. Thomas specifically spoke on the timing of Trump's activities while inquiring about the "catch kill language and purposes" what was more intriguing was how this was really our first travels within Trump's universe with a purpose –

The hearing resumed.

Ms. Foxx exploited Cohen's fraud activities continuing to beat a dead horse
Cohen alleged Trump surpassed 9,000 lies begging
Mr. Jordan to address illegal activities and remain that course –

Mr. Massie asked Cohen if he was a good lawyer to Trump Cohen stated yes, Massie felt Cohen was incompetent counsel
Mr. Higgins questioned Cohen about exculpatory evidence reminiscing of his law enforcement days acting politically macho –

the Republicans were focusing their time on public information
Mr. Meadows express concerns over deceit and possible lies
Mr. Raskin wanted clarification about "the catch and kill" terminology Cohen referred to Stormy Daniels, like bribery payouts, and publicity cries –

black eyes were associated with the Russian gangster Felix Satar who was primarily associated with Moscow business relations Glenn Grothman defended Trump's person and character alleged to be based on personal experiences and official relations –

Cohen explains what a rule 35 motion was and the benefits of testifying as a government informant Meadows questioned Cohen about withholding evidence violating the 24-hour rule of review alleging the violation was enormous –

Mr. Rouda confirmed there are ongoing investigations
Mr. Amash questioned why Cohen was ever hired Cohen stated it was because of prior relations and Donald Trump Jr. and prior relations ultimately secured the hire –

Cohen stated Trump speaks in code that he knows all too well
Amash asked what Trump fears most about him testifying Cohen responded that was a tuff question he could not answer clearly expressing remorse without lying or crying –

Stephanie Clifford defended servicemen and the constitution because of personal, as a leader, and alleged honorable reasons she inquired about meetings alleging campaign violations that Michael Cohen confirmed lasted over various seasons –

Mr. Gibbs appeared predictable once again targeting Cohen's credibility and testifying intent
Mr. Gibbs alleged Cohen was not remorseful and blames others enjoying the perks of other's money being ultimately well spent –

Cohen stated he takes no pleasure in defaming President Trump
Mr. Jordan inquired if Cohen started with Trump's presidential campaign

Mr. Cohen quickly confirms yes while reiterating providing a website, some history, and it's associated domains –

Mr. Sarbanes alleged Cohen had more to lose then he had to gain wanting to make the record right then Sarbanes switched gears calling Cohen's testimony
"compelling and credible because of his direct insider insight" –

Mr. Higgins expressed remorse to the Cohen family for all they were presently going through stating Cohen is in a bind trying to find his way out "reminding him of many individuals he has arrested and seen through" –

Mr. Welch referred to Roger Stone and Hillary Clinton regarding a "massive dump of emails"
Mr. Welch further established Trump's past and present knowledge regarding the email dumps clearly waiting to exhale –

Mr. Welch's last question was associated with Mr. Raskin's questions surrounding bribery payouts and or arrangements
Mr. Norman asked Cohen if he ever illegally wiretapped Trump Cohen quickly confirmed "yes" alleging to protect his legal engagements –

Mrs. Carol, the American people just may be as appalled as you you appeared insensitive and or ignorant to America's active practices Ms. Kelly focused on bribery payments and shell companies created for like payments for strippers, actors, and actresses –

Kelly Armstrong targeted moral and ethical standards reiterating the importance of preserving attorney-client privileges exhibiting a loyalty of spoken and unspoken qualities that vows to protect-attorney client privileges –

Mr. DeSaulnier inquired about the Trump Towers and undisclosed businesses and or Russia relations many names were implicated influencing CNBC polls for campaigning and personal benefits and affiliations –

Mr. Greg Steube again tried shaking Cohen by attacking his credibility to no avail Cohen again expressed remorse for lying to the first lady whom he felt deserved the truth not the tales from hell –

Brenda Lawrence expressed being insulted by racial and harassing behaviors from Trump and Giuliani
Ms. Plaskett, as a former prosecutor, recommended an internal complaint be filed for witness intimidation being committed by Trump employees –

The hearing held its second recess.

The hearing resumed and subsequently carried the same momentum ending with the same tempo
Michael Cohen undoubtedly is still Michael Cohen as President Trump is still Donald Trump tweeting nuclear missiles –

The republicans downplaying and or attempting to discredit Michael Cohen, a key power player and insider turned informant, will force the American people to look a little differently at the ramifications of this hearing. The American people are resilient and you cannot continue to tell us it's dark outside when the day is lovely and the sun is clearly shining.

However, what's just as alarming the Republicans did not seek the truth or any possible content to defame and or assist President Donald Trump's allies or oppositions for that matter. In fact, the Republicans acted like they were continuously appalled that the Democrats provided a defamed convicted felon such a global platform for alleged slander, lies, illegal, and or unethical activities.

Although there are many unanswered questions regarding motives and or possible intent associated with President Trump's personal and or business relations, what's factual is, (1) it appears Trump has been continuously caught not being forthright throughout various inquiries of his presidency, and (2) the Republicans must understand the double standards of law applications and tactics used cannot continue and should not continue to differ from the ground floors of the American people compared to the political realms of money and power as they clearly are.

Undoubtedly the ground levels of society throughout alleged high crime and drug infested neighborhoods we would have been investigated for Rico behaviors because the core of this hearing has clearly and legally established more than enough overt acts.

The tactics of using defamed and known convicted informants who have clearly been documented committing perjury on various levels to assist the state, government, themselves, and or the unknown has become the American norm throughout our judicial community.

Unfortunately, the charging entities continue to afford incentives, sentencing leniency and money for informant testimony, which ultimately caters to the DNA of mass incarceration, illegal and or tainted convictions, and sentencing disparities amongst other troubling dynamics.

The whirlwind of Michael Cohen testimony regardless if you are a President Trump ally or a Michael Cohen supporter, hate it, like it, or love it, Trump's and Cohen's personal and or professional relationship like this hearing has stamped its signature on history.

Written (02/27/19) by Clifton A. Jackson

Your likes, repost of link, tags, and hashtags are sincerely appreciated.

