

The Central Park Five, Nah, The Exonerated Five

McCray, Richardson, Salaam, Santana & Wise are the Exonerated Five, deserving of all the exposure although, 41 mill will never compensate for your years lost I'm happy each of you is getting a zillion per worth of love & exposure – damn, y'all met Oprah, I can foresee awards and your lights thank you, Justice Tejada, an appellate justice finally doing the right thing how can the prosecuting players continuing to scream guilty when the DNA evidence back in 1989 exonerated you kings – it was reported that President Trump refused to offer you guys and your families an official apology the hate and double standards perpetuated is a zillion times worse than cancers, aids, ill epidemics, an all of its rivalries – daily, alarming video & DNA evidence is sweeping our nation killing us alive something like Oyezxxz & the Exonerated Five It's crazy how prosecutors can and will frame for high profile convictions without retribution, regardless, who lives or who dies – today, the judicial climate remains cold and masked up while we are forced to inhale and breathe cyanide what's worse, low-level drug offenses or ignoring & manipulating evidence to convict, the perceptions can go as far left as genocide – although high-poverty numbers continue to mask & propel the profits made off incarceration continues to revolve equality, injustices, and incarcerated issues are contaminating our role model knowing the perceptions make it hard to evolve – looking forward, I hope y'all heal in the midst of the blogs you were stagnated long enough, live life, and chase your dreams thinking about the money, power & respect, focus & full steam you're the Exonerated Five now, so bless us with some lil kings & queens –
