

Angel Brinks

Angel you representing our underdog statuses inspired me to write this tribute.

As you I'm thankful for the opportunities Shaunie O'Neal & Co., afforded you on Basketball Wives LA. The show amongst other things provides a presidential vehicle in discovering you.

Angel, hopping right in I'm sure you'll concur acting on our visions and manifesting our dreams is not only breathtaking we inspire so many.

As you know chasing and experiencing the elusion of both the highs and lows of notoriety and fame driving or riding shotgun humbles, molds, and defines character. Individually although we always fall short every day we aim to keep the better versions of ourselves in the best light. In this process, social media and the web has become a never-ending airline flight.

Establishing and solidifying relations in the air be it business or love can mirror the corporate structure of an airline and some of its major components being flight attendants, pilots, and copilots. Regardless of our social media handles, websites, or our levels in life if the attendants, pilots, and copilots are not on one accord our desired levels preflight or inflight will be compromised.

Angel as you know if there are cracks or holes in our aircrafts structure water or air will find its way through which can be detrimental to our flights ground level or at high altitudes of 30 thousand plus feet.

The water or air in this analogy can be any form of disrespect, hating, malice, counterproductive games, misunderstandings, etc.

Undoubtedly via our jet streams good and love will always flow, however when we fall or fail because of uncontrolled or unexpected situations how do we survive when good, love, material & superficial qualities, and all else fails?

Can we maintain our still stance in the eye of the storm exhibiting the heart of a lion like my sister from another mother Angel Brinks? Can we recognize and embrace an unknown ingredient like Oyez222 if it caters to our rise?

Angel, clearly I am a fan and business-wise I recognize your fashion expertise as a diamond in the ruff. So please allow me to briefly speak your fashion language. In 2017 research suggested online sales neighbored 453 billion. In 2018 online sales are already exceeding expectations. Analytically research also suggests apparel sales alone online will almost double that 453 billion dollar number to 713 billion by 2022.

Angel with your ingredients I strongly believe our collective brands together can enjoy a few crumbs of that analytical pie. Besides our own motivations and fuels I know if we can dream it we can achieve it.

So as I marinate

Angel, I'm such a fan with a vision not to mention I'm guilty I'm into the superficial the day I'll stop thinking of Brinks and major paper is when I have no worries of financial poisons and billions of pistols – detained but free the thought of your expertise collaborating with Oyezxx is obscuring my vision what will it take to bring our partnership into fruition picture seven-plus figures after the government multiplications & divisions – the thought of Oyezxx apparel you are the conversation not some paparazzi shit or all the gossip speaking purely professional although unorthodox there is absolutely nothing that can alter my logic –

in life regardless of the elusions we are all youthful, flawed, an imperfect topics but in the grand scheme of life our common goals are to monetize enjoying the fruits of our profits –

that's why everywhere we look we see dirty diamonds glistening like coal by way of our earth pressures in fact, what's a sweet liquid secreted by various flowers and gathered by bees for honey the answer is nectar –

Basketball Wives was a win-win for you, Jackie, Malaysia, and the girls even when the temperatures boiled just think of manure, the fermentation of grapes, and spoiled milk Oyezxx is the next phenomenon to arrive from lows and spoils – together we can better equip ourselves to deal with happy times, adversities, and life's alimonies you know that realm where pettiness and counterproductive games has no place graduating tax brackets and like testimonies – thinking of nanna's passion for sheer and fashion is intriguing cause we are all thin, fine, and transparent for me, I breathe our partnership regardless our itineraries we are the heir apparent –

I'm such a fan of your resume loving the way you grinding how you grind little do you know the secret ingredients of Oyezxx will only metamorphosis the way you shine how you shine –

I'm talking uncharted fruitful waters creating history graduating worries of checks and balances on a 2% doubled formula we will monetize inspiring homeless dreams of a billion+ followers like the Tyler Perrys & Tiffany Haddishs –

Angel is a celebrity, fashion designer, and entrepreneur known for her glitzy leggings and for starring in the VH1 reality show, Basketball Wives LA.

Growing up Brinks explored different forms of performing arts, including ballet and choir. She developed an interest in fashion from her nanna who used to sew clothes.

Brinks officially started her fashion career in 2010. She began by creating glitzy leggings, combining sequins and velvet to come with expressive pieces. Her clothing line quickly grew to include matching sets, tops, and other bodysuits. Her clothing line has evolved into a well-known fashion brand.

Miami's own female rapper Trina was the first celebrity Angel designed for. Since then Trina has become a regular client and is regularly seen in Brinks designer cloths helping to boost Brinks name in fashion and international celebrity circles.

Today Brinks has a growing resume that includes celebrities such as Lil Kim, Amber Rose, Ashanti, K Michelle, Blac Chyna, and so many more known and unknown.

Angel, for me it's such an honor to say you are a true definition of open your eyes.
