

Triggaman

Triggaman is a legend, not a myth hip hop's next phenomenon to body the game surfacing from the depths of the obis – this young gunner screaming St. Louis and trays I'm talking writing, memorizing polish spitting bricks via pain and dark secrets riding a wave –

I'm talking Luda and Nelly combined that bill ticket bleeding the Dream, Lenny X and Rick Ross definition of Signed –

Lake Erie Correctional Trig bodied the joint concert after concert standing room only talking that work you can bag it and sell it point for point –

El Chapo on the mic call him a plug this boy can lean stadiums like the next epidemic the skies the limit and everything above – so let's eliminate the small talk carry the weight of the hood is like playing monopoly you know we want it all including Park Place and Boardwalk –

in fact it won't be long before the booking prices will be fifty to a hundred bands for sure the streets about to be holla Triggaman Triggaman –
