It's crazy coming from nothing how our minds processes especially being on the short end of equality conversations we're stuck with our unforeseen strengths regardless life tests – and even though we question God regarding his pressures creating diamonds in the ruffs in live the answers are extremely elusive so we chase money cause enough is never enough – with that being said that's why our survival makeups embraces the hustles I can leave the house skinny, starving, and dead broke and come home a heavyweight full of muscles – today I have more respect for my choices thinking outside the box I changed the products Oyezxx is a brand ready to leave footprints I'm talking quality brands like Gucci's and Prada's – today is a special day to acknowledge NFL talents who've created their own lanes tonight it's going down in Canton, Ohio the 2018 class going into the Hall of Fame – see for me Oyezxx has graduated my levels if you allege I don't know how to act the differences between me and yesterday is nothing but inner peace and shifting the weight on my back – think about this - what's the difference between dirty money and a dirty check although millions of answers will vary we know money and power will disrespect – my social media pipeline is like the 80s I'm a certified Buffalo New Yorker who lived through the NWA era I'm talking a time when game recognized game when mobbing was all beauty without the faking and mascara –

I'm talking a time when Diddy was formatting his Bad Boy vision and world tours look at him now almost a billion later still breathing Bad Boys and reping The Four – as the conversations commence we can't be trapped by crab in the bucket syndromes keeping in mind conversations without works are hollow from the joint I'm focused and grounded I'm talking ten toes – moving forward negativity if researched is a tressure of worth creating our own lanes just know your dreams, creations, and visions are yours that's hot as the sun which evaporates the rains –

Google Ray Lewis HOF speech. It's extremely powerful. Creations.
