

Mommy I Love You

Mommy I love you
this sentiment is shared by every child I know you want the world for me just know you are the author of every mile – there are not enough minutes in a lifetime to fully show you my appreciation all I can do is keep my eyes on the prize as you wish with minimal deviations – before I knew of God or the church you were and remain my higher power regardless my strengths or shortcomings your love always nurtures, motivates and empowers – so regardless our ups and downs thank you for delivering me thank you for understanding me thank you for forgiveness and always believing in me – and thank you for all your sacrifices on the fly you mastered adjusting your motherly plans although in life nothing is perfect you are to me and you've always been my #1 fan – your words of wisdom are full of guidance just know my world of love for you will never be private I believe I can close with these words speaking for every child sincerely thank you mommy for everything and I love you –
