

RIP Justine Damond

Minneapolis PD here we go again I guess the live stream Castile murder wasn't enough so you go and murder Justine so where the hell do we begin – is it why were the officers' dashcam and body mics turned off or how can an alert citizen calling 911 be murdered by your responding officers' who's obviously inching to make a wild west call – not to mention from the patrol cruiser passenger seat it's so hard to digest alleged deserts in life when they are either burnt, molded or anything but sweet – this hinders our growth regarding many barriers including race the same way there's no justifying Wanez acquittal in the Castile murder nor was that 2.9 million to his family sufficient based on its face – now on various continents the Damond's are mourning the double standards of police murders rob families of closure like the comprehension of protocols and procedures are foreign – now we can only pray Justine is enjoying her love of meditation she was full of life, love and although not perfect she was to hers and so many others with no abbreviations – for the record Justine's death money will never replace although in life we work to love and forgive these types of symptoms are clearly the residue of hate – we will forever wonder what's missing surrounding Justine's death because this was so much more than just another police shooting and these sentiments will be screamed until our last breaths – in closing the Damond family acknowledges all the love and support sincerely thank you all in advance because it's you that fuels the strength and motivation to hold down the fort –

Justine you have profoundly affected so many lives near and afar. I hope you, your family and friends find all the necessary peace. Justine in so many ways you will forever live through us all. #justine
