

Stigmas

Stigmas are primarily associated with disgrace and poison however our vehicles of arrival many times are unjustifiably annoying – stigmas can also be a heartbeat of radiation the symbols of our birthmarks or the apex of the pistil of a flower on which pollen is deposited at pollination – it is now acknowledged branding and bullying are in a heated race highlighting how individualism so easily judge and the deceptions of relaxations, smiles and handshakes – so we pollute the oxygen further because of public perceptions I'm talking conglomerated and billion-dollar quarterbacks alleging to never thrown interceptions – it's something like previewing movies and their trailers a sophisticated society of shakers and undertakers modeling outfits expensively tailored –

I'm talking fraternities, gated communities, and hidden secrets perpetuating propaganda and reproach only to act surprised or disrespected because their own germs were not afforded immunities of approach – stigmas are playing an intricate part in disregarding and murdering our youth ask Sacramento and other PDs about killing so many Clarks' dam it's sad when the truth hates the truth –

so be careful how you judge some of life's key ingredients are equality and love therefore stigmas should never hinder our abilities of soaring with the eagles and the doves –
