

The Words of Paul Harvey

This piece was authored the day of the great Muhammad Ali funeral. It is that real.

For many of the younger generations; a question may be who is Paul Harvey?

Paul Harvey and his resume are a must Google. However one of his many titles, he was a Conservative American Radio Broadcaster for the ABC Radio Networks.

In addition Mr. Harvey was an avid writer. Mr. Harvey in part wrote this piece in the 60s regarding the devil's goals and dreams which have clearly manifested. Wow what hindsight.

The realities of this piece are very much alive and extremely active today. Allow me to share in part.

Mr. Harvey wrote, begin quote:

"If I were the ... If I were the Prince of Darkness, I'd want to engulf the whole world in darkness. And I'd have a third of its real estate, and four fifths of its population, but I wouldn't be happy until I seized the ripest apple on the tree – thee. So I'd set about however necessary to take over the United States. I'd subvert the church first -- I'd begin with a campaign of whispers. With the wisdom of a serpent, I would whisper to you as I whispered to eve; Do as you please!

To the young, I would whisper that the bible is a myth. I would convince them that man created God instead of the other way around. I would confide that what's bad is good, and what's good is square. And the old, I would teach to pray, after me, our father, which art in Washington.

And then I'd get organized. I'd educate authors in how to make lurid literature exciting, so that anything else would appear dull and uninteresting. I'd threaten TV with dirtier movies and vice versa. I'd pedal narcotics to whom I could. I'd sell alcohol to ladies and gentlemen of distinction. I'd tranquilize the rest with pills.

If I were the devil I'd soon have families at war with themselves, churches at war with themselves, and nations at war with themselves until each in its turn was consumed. And with promise of higher ratings I'd have mesmerizing media fanning the flames, If I was the devil I would encourage schools to refine young intellects, but neglect to discipline emotions -- just let those run wild, until before you knew it, you'd have to have drugs sniffing dogs and metal detectors at every schoolhouse door.

Within a decade I'd have prisons overflowing, I'd have judges promoting pornography -- soon I could evict God from the courthouse, then from the school-house, and then from the house of Congress. And in his own churches I would substitute psychology for religion, and defy science, I would lure priest and pastors into misusing boys and girls, and church money. If I were the devil I'd make the symbols of Easter an egg and the symbol of Christmas a bottle.

If I were the devil I'd take from those, and who have until I had killed the incentive of the ambitious. And what do you bet? I could get whole states, to promote gambling as thee way to get rich. I would caution against extremes and hard work, in patriotism, in moral conduct. I would convince the young that marriage is old fashion, that swinging is more fun, that what you see on TV is the way to be and thus I could undress you in public and I could lure you into bed with diseases for which there is no cure. In other words, if I were the devil I'd just keep right on doing on what he's doing.

Paul Harvey, good day." End quote.

Leading up to the champ's funeral words cannot explain the celebration an exhibition of love, humility, and unity exhibited by and for the peoples and the world champ Muhammad Ali.

There were no racial, religious or political barriers. It was one purpose, love and show of respect.

Clearly we have made the simplicities of love so complicated.

There is so much more work that needs to be done. If only we can continue to float like a butterfly and sting like a bee like the healthy or sick Ali.

Ali believed and showed us we could, we just have to show and prove to ourselves now.

June 10, 2016 regardless where you were near or afar, embraced that moment because you have experienced history.

This same day we also lost another great legend of his time, Mr. Gordie Howe.

The OYEZZZ family sends our prayers, love and well wishes to the Howe family and friends.
